WHO CAN TELL

How awkward a horse would look geared up with the cart in front of him? Well, if you ever see anything like this in this enlightened age and country I know you will be surprised and will say the asylum is the place for this man. I think you would be perfectly reasonable and consistent in saying so:

1. Because it is contrary to common sense.
2. Because it is contrary to reason.
3. Because it is contrary to the horses' better judgment.

I hope you will not take me for an extremist when I say (and I am able to prove it by the inspired record) that some religious teachers are just as unreasonable and inconsistent in their teaching. Man, out of Christ, is not only lost but he is an enemy to God, totally depraved—soul, heart, mind, conscience—indeed every impulse of his being is in opposition to God.

Now for one to assume the awful responsibility as teacher for God and know no more about the plan of redemption, the explicit teaching of the Bible than in teaching this man to tell him to quit doing bad and do right and God will save him, has the cart directly?

Now let us see, in Romans 11. Paul disabuses the mind of his brethren at Rome of the false idea and doctrine, and the same doctrine is held up to the world to-day; yes made very prominent by some religious teachers. Now Paul says in substance if they are said by works (just what this man is taught to do) then grace had no part in it. And then he reverses the argument and says if they were saved by grace works had no part in it; and then says it can't be both works and grace; and still further he says that it is not works and then affirms by the spirit of God that it is GRACE. I ask does God save people because they do right?

What, dear friend, what had you been doing when God enabled you to see yourself a poor, miserable lost sinner? Did you feel in your heart and soul that you had been doing right? Oh! there is not to be found a child of God in all this world that has such an experience. No, but to the contrary, guilty! guilty! guilty! is the verdict of every child of God.

WHO CAN TELL

The thoughts and feelings of hundreds and thousands of the broad-minded, broad-gaged, noble-hearted members of the great Southern Baptist Convention, when the fact was announced from the Imperial City, the great capital of these United States of America (the greatest and grandest government two to that meeting of the Southern Baptist Convention would find an open door? Well, it beats the world and the balance of creation. Who on earth can tell?

DIED

ROACH.

Miss Margaret A. Roach was born in Fayette county, Tenn., May 16, 1839. When she was about eleven years of age her parents moved to this State, and at the early age of fourteen she made a public profession of faith and was baptized by Elder Jesse Woodall into the fellowship of Bethesda Baptist church, Hinds county. In later life a kind providence placed her in the Christian home of her aunt, Mrs. A. Frank, near Crystal Springs, where she lived in the enjoyment of a delightful family affection, not only making for herself, by her kind and benevolent disposition, a lasting place in the affection of the home circle, but also winning the love and esteem of all who knew her.

Her love for her Savior was evidenced by the special interest she took in the church, always filling her place, when circumstances would permit, both at the regular church services and in the meetings of the Woman's Missionary Society. The end came suddenly. She sat in the family circle on Saturday evening, but on the following morning she was stricken with apoplexy and on the afternoon of that day—Dec. 9, 1894—she passed away. In looking back at her useful life and peaceful death we are reminded of those comforting words of inspiration: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth; yea, saith the spirit, that they may rest from their labors and their works do follow them."

I. H. A.
Crystal Springs, Miss.

January 28, 1895, Lula Sabina Carmichael, daughter of J. W. and S. L. Carmichael, in Clarke county, Miss., aged two years, eight months and twenty-four days. Her death was caused by a burn from her clothing catching on fire. She only lived about fifty-three hours. Bright and attractive little Lula, was loved by all the family. Our hearts were made so sad by hearing little Ernest, her twin brother, crying after her. But while the home is darkened by this stroke of divine providence, heaven is brightened by one more of its own jewels.
J. M. C.

Gertrude Gonzalez, the leading member and only deacon of the Baptist church in Doctor Arroyo, Mexico, died to-day, Jan. 21, of Lito. He attended the first public meeting we ever held in this city, and was with the first to be baptized. Tho' comparatively young in years, the plain teachings of God's Word took hold on his heart and stood out boldly in his character and young Christian life.

He was a regular and successful agent of the American Bible Society and was in the midst of great usefulness. In our church here there is not a man left who can fill his right arm. I feel like I had lost my right arm. Our brother died in the triumph of the Christian faith. I thank God for such trophies of His grace. My heart is, oh so sad! and my eyes grow dim with tears as I write.

May God comfort and bless the widow and four little orphan children, all so sorely bereaved.
J. G. CHASTAIN,
Doctor Arroyo, Mexico, Jan. 21.

MRS. FRANCES YATES.

It often we record the sad word died. In this instance it is the death of a wife and mother. We would not rehearse the sorrow of husband, children, sister or friends, for they "weep not as those who have no hope" for the Lord has called home his own. In her life she was blessed with many virtues. She had the ornament of a "meek and quiet spirit," considerate and obliging. She won friends and retained them. She was the daughter of Doctor Joseph Rogers, who passed on to be here about a year. Her life in its varied relationship, is a legacy of inestimable worth to the bereaved children. May each of them follow her as she followed Christ. She was buried from the Baptist church, of Crystal Springs, Miss., Jan. 16, 1895. Funeral services conducted by her friend, from her youth,

A PICTURE OF REV. GEORGE MULLER, the man of Faith and Prayer, the founder of the Ashby Down Orphan Houses, Bristol, England, who was born in the Kingdom of Russia, in Germany, September 27, 1805, and is still as active as ever in his ninetieth year. He has supported numbers of orphans by faith and prayer for sixty years. I have a late picture of Mr. Muller, from which I have had a number of copies made. All who are interested in our orphanage would do well to look at it, and send 25 cents to me for a cabinet photograph of this good man. It would be a pleasure to have his picture, and in this way our orphanage can be helped.

TO THE OXFORD BAPTIST CHURCH:

Your committee on the resignation of our pastor, Dr. O. L. Hall, is informed that a positive engagement to become at once one of the editors of the St. Louis Baptist Flag, was made by our pastor before his resignation was tendered. This leaves us practically no choice in the matter; wherefore, solely because we cannot do otherwise we recommend that his resignation be accepted. In doing so we feel constrained to add this resignation, falling upon us without the slightest note of warning, so soon after we had made his annual into an indefinite call, and with an unusual increase of individual subscriptions had about provided for his salary for the ensuing year, was wholly unexpected and very discouraging. Yet we fall to see any controlling reason that should have caused him to hesitate to accept the offered promotion to the higher station and wider field of usefulness.

We wish to say as he goes out from among us: we regard Dr. Hall a strong man, magnificently endowed by nature with all that makes the minister successful. He is also a fearless man; he does not hesitate, whether popular or unpopular to declare the whole truth as he sees it, nor to stand it need be alone for his convictions. He is a man of research and reflection, and reaches conclusions for himself. Withal, he is a man of broad sympathies and a warm heart. As a preacher and pastor he has met our highest expectations. We part with him with profound regret, but bid him God-speed in his new field, whither he will follow him and his charming wife and little ones God bless them, with our prayers and best wishes, trusting that in all this God is leading though we see it not.

Respectfully submitted,
B. M. KIMBROUGH,
GEO. W. LEAVELL,
S. H. PLANT,
Committee.

The above was unanimously adopted by the church in conference February 3, 1895, and the clerk requested to furnish Dr. Hall a copy, and also furnish copies to THE BAPTIST RECORD, Baptist Flag, and local papers with the request that they publish the same.
W. U. HAMPTON,
Church Clerk.

THOUSANDS OF LETTERS.

A WONDERFUL ENTERPRISE OF THE ## RELIEF OF CATARRH SUFFERERS.

Since Dr. Hartman's offer to take charge of 10,000 cases of chronic catarrh without charge the letters have come pouring in from every State in the Union. An enormous amount of mail matter leaves the doctor's office every day. A great many stenographers, copyists, and private clerks are kept busy from morning till night in preparing the multitude of letters which the doctor dictates. Cures are reported by the score. An intense interest prevails in all parts of the country. Those who follow the doctor's directions carefully, are sure of being cured. To become a patient one should write name, age, sex, and symptoms, and address to Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio. Each letter will be carefully answered in regular turn. The druggists all over the United States are always supplied with Dr. Hartman's "remedies for the treatment of catarrh."

Those who prefer, for any reason, not to have their names entered as regular patients of Dr. Hartman's, and yet wish to avail themselves of the doctor's treatment, should send at once for a copy of Family Physician No. 2. This book gives a description of the use of Dr. Hartman's great remedy, Peruna, in chronic catarrh, in grippa, coughs, colds, bronchitis, consumption, and all climatic diseases of winter. Sent free by The Peruna Drug Manufacturing Company, Columbus, Ohio. For free book on cancer address Dr. Hartman, Columbus, Ohio.

LITERARY NOTES.

"The Progress of the World" in the Review of Reviews for February, commenting on the recent sudden change in the Presidency of the French Republic, suggests a desirable improvement in the French system, the separation of the legislative and executive departments of government. The editor of the Review, in the same department, discusses recent events in Hawaii and Japan, the condition of Armenia, the troubles in Newfoundland, and many other topics of world-wide interest. In the field of English politics, such subjects as the revenue returns, the London municipal elections, and the fortunes of the Liberal party are treated, while Continental affairs of the day receive due consideration. On the American side, the editor presents a timely summary of the present condition of the national treasury and demands that some means to secure revenue be devised by Congress before a plan of currency reform is permanently adopted; the changes in the composition of the Senate are

PUBLISHERS ANNOUNCEMENT.

The American Baptist Publication Society has reduced the price of the revised English Version of the New Testament, edited by Alvah Hovey, D. D., John A. Broadus, D. D., Henry G. Weston, D. D., from 40 cents to 20 cents net, which is about the actual cost of production. This revised version of the New Testament has received the high commendation from scholars as being the best published. It is published in two forms, one of which contains the American Bible Union translation of Baptizo (immerse, etc.) the other has the Anglicized form of the Greek word, Baptize, etc.

TRANSPLANTING TO COUNTRY HOMES.

Editorial from Inter-ocean. The work of transplanting unemployed or poorly employed individuals and families from congested centers of population into agricultural districts, which was begun and successfully prosecuted last spring under the auspices of the Civil Federation of Chicago, is now resumed under the same superintendence by the Bureau of Labor and Transportation. A large percentage of the unemployed, both male and female, are willing to go and there can come to them no boon so great as to be thus transplanted. In such work many become farm help, many tenants, many purchasers on the installment plan, and some go to colonize or on homesteads. The work is a help to self-help. It converts consumers into producers. The Bureau is a bit of inexpensive machinery which stands as an intermediary between the men who seek and the men who offer employment, between individuals also and railroad corporations, and an arrangement on a mutual benefit basis that neither the one nor the other is conscious of either receiving or giving "charity," and yet it is philanthropic in a very true and broad sense.

Anyone having an opening for work of any kind should address the secretary, John Fisher, 719-187 Dearborn Street, Chicago.

P. S.—Information concerning opportunities for the location of families, or of colonies in the Southern States, is especially desired, there being many applicants for such openings.

ORDINATION.

At Duck Hill on Monday night after the third Sabbath in January, we had a very impressive ordination service. The deacons-elect were Bros. D. R. Brance and Lovell Rose. The sermon was preached by Rev. T. J. Bailey, of Winona, from the text: "It is not reason that we should leave the Word of God and serve tables. Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of wisdom and the Holy Spirit, whom we may appoint over this business." It was a good sermon and well received.

The ordination prayer was offered by Rev. B. W. Merrill, of Grenada; the prayer of invocation by the pastor and the charge was delivered by Bro. Merrill. The points in the charge were instructive and eminently practical. The entire service was very impressive and well calculated to do good.
